Dear Sir/ Madam,

RE: Ordering textbooks in line with the Competence Based Curriculum for private schools as well as parents

In order to implement the Competence-Based Curriculum (CBC) Rwanda Basic Education Board (REB) purchased the copyright for all grades CBC textbooks from publishers and wrote missing textbooks through its In-House Textbooks Production Initiative. Local printing companies have contracted for printing and distribution of these textbooks to all public and government aided schools.

To ensure that all schools and students including private providers have access to these textbooks, REB is requesting all private schools to place orders with REB Curriculum Teaching and Learning Resource Department using the following E-mail : books@reb.rw not later than 30th August 2021 such that the tender to print and distribute textbooks to schools is advertised at once.

This is to facilitate private schools and parents to have access to these books at the affordable and printing cost. I hereby request private schools to make their orders including those from parents who wish to buy their children textbooks and submit them to REB for consolidation and submission to printing companies. The orders from private schools should be submitted to REB not later than 6th September 2021.

Please note that private schools will pay the ordered cost directly to the contracted printing companies. For more information please contact Mr. Alex Nshimiyimana at 0738390853.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. MBARUSHIMANA Nelson
